

MARE Habitat Workshops

Designed for K–8 teachers, science specialists and informal educators, each workshop provides training in standards-rich, inquiry-based science strategies for addressing the needs of English learners and ideas for incorporating technology and literacy into any science program. Each workshop focuses on a specific habitat for a span of grade levels, includes a field trip to a related habitat, and if appropriate, a guest presentation by a Scripps Institution of Oceanography researcher.

October 29	Kelp Forest	4–6 th Grades
November 6	Open Ocean	5–8 th Grades
November 12	Rocky Shore	K–2nd Grades
November 20	Ponds	Pre-K/Kinder
December 9	Sandy Beach	2–4 th Grades
December 11	Wetlands	3–4 th Grades
March 12	Coral Reefs	6–8 th Grades

Times: 9am–4pm

Fee: $75 (includes lunch, coffee break & materials). $60 MARE curriculum binder (optional)

Scholarships are available for those demonstrating financial need.

To register, request a scholarship form, or find out more information, please call 858/534-7336.